ARTS AND CULTURE GLOBAL TALENT VISA

The Global Talent visa (<https://immigrationbarrister.co.uk/personal-immigration/global-talent-visas/global-talent-visa/>) route is open to talented and promising individuals in the fields of arts and culture wishing to work in the UK. Applicants for a UK Arts and Culture Global Talent visa will be leaders in their field, or have the potential to be leaders, as determined by Arts Council England.

Arts Council England (<https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/>) can endorse an application for an Arts and Culture Global Talent visa in the fields of combined arts, dance, literature, music, theatre, visual arts (including those working in an artistic context in galleries and museums).

There is no cap on the number of applicants that can be endorsed in the Arts and Culture sub-category of the Global Talent route.

Other UK visa routes for artists and entertainers include the Creative Visit visa (<https://immigrationbarrister.co.uk/personal-immigration/short-stay-visit-visas/creative-visit-visa/>), the Permitted Paid Engagement Visit visa (<https://immigrationbarrister.co.uk/personal-immigration/short-stay-visit-visas/permitted-paid-engagement-visit-visa/>) and the Creative Worker visa (<https://immigrationbarrister.co.uk/personal-immigration/short-term-work-visas/temporary-work-creative-worker-visa/>). Our immigration barristers in Covent Garden would be pleased to advise you on your options.

Arts and Culture Global Talent Visa Requirements

In order to qualify for a Global Talent visa in the Arts and Culture field, you will need to satisfy UK Visas and Immigration that:

- You are aged 18 or over;
- You have been issued with an endorsement letter by Arts Council England or have been awarded a prize listed in Appendix Global Talent: Prestigious Prizes; <https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=richmond+chambers+in+immigration+barristers>
- Your application does not fall under the general grounds for refusal;
- You have provided a valid TB certificate, if required.

The exact requirements you will need to satisfy in order to qualify an Arts and Culture Global Talent Visa may vary depending on your circumstances. You may want to speak to an immigration lawyer for expert advice.

To discuss your Arts and Culture Global Talent visa application with one of our immigration barristers, contact our immigration lawyers in Covent Garden, London on 0203 617 9173 or complete our enquiry form below.

Requirements for Endorsement by Arts Council England

In order to qualify for an Arts and Culture endorsement by Arts Council England you will need to be professionally engaged in producing work of outstanding quality which has been performed, presented, distributed or exhibited internationally.

Exceptional Promise applicants must be at an early stage in their career. Applicants at later stages of their careers should apply under the Exceptional Talent criteria.

You must have been regularly engaged as a professional practitioner in your field within the last 5 years and be able to show a substantial track record in at least 2 countries (if applying on the basis of Exceptional Talent) or a developing track record in one or more countries (if applying on the basis of Exceptional Promise).

Evidence Required for Endorsement by Arts Council England

Your application for an Arts and Culture endorsement by Arts Council England will need to include 3 letters of recommendation.

Two letters of recommendation will need to be from well-established arts and culture organisations you have worked with, who are acknowledged as experts in your field and at least one of these organisations will need to be based in the UK.

The third letter of recommendation will need to be from another well-established arts and culture organisation, or an individual you have worked with, who has recognised expertise in your field.

Your application for an Arts and Culture endorsement will also need to include a CV to assist Arts Council England to understand what stage you are at in your arts and culture career to date.

Exceptional Talent Applicants in the Field of Arts and Culture

If you are seeking to evidence exceptional talent in the field of Arts and Culture, you will need to provide at least two of the following:

(<https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=immigration+barristers+in+covent+garden&rlz=1C1GCECHAMBERS+in>)

Media Recognition: evidence from at least 2 countries (which can include your country of residence) of 2 or more examples of significant media recognition for your work as an individual or as a named member of a group or as a contributor (such as an internationally recognised orchestra or dance troupe); or

Awards: evidence of winning, or significantly contributing to winning, at least 1 international award for excellence; or

Performances, publications or exhibitions: evidence from at least 2 countries (which can include your country of residence) of proof of professional appearances, performances, publications or exhibitions considered internationally significant in your field, or evidence of extensive international distribution and sales for your work as an individual or as a named member of a group or as a contributor.

Exceptional Promise Applicants in the Field of Arts and Culture

If you are seeking to evidence exceptional promise in the field of Arts and Culture, you will need to provide at least 2 of the following:

Media Recognition: evidence from at least 1 country (which can include your country of residence) of at least 2 examples of recent media recognition for your work as an individual, as a named member of a group or as a contributor; or

Awards: evidence of winning, or significantly contributing to winning, or significantly contributing to being nominated or shortlisted for, or being nominated or shortlisted for, at least 1 international award for excellence; or

Performances, publications or exhibitions: evidence from at least 1 country (which can include your country of residence) of proof of professional appearances, performances, publications or exhibitions recognised in your field, or evidence of international distribution and sales for your work as an individual, as a named member of a group or as a contributor.

Does Arts Council England Require Referees?

You will need to provide Arts Council England with three letters of recommendation in support of your application.

One letter must come from a UK based organisation, institution or company, which is well-established nationally and/or internationally and widely acknowledged as possessing expertise in your specialist field. <https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=richmond+chambers+in>

The second letter must also be from an organisation, institution or company, which is well established nationally and/or internationally and widely acknowledged as possessing expertise in your specialist field. However, this second organisation may be based in the UK or overseas.

The third letter can be a further letter from an organisation, institution or company (UK or overseas based) which is well established nationally and/or internationally and widely acknowledged as possessing expertise in your specialist field, or it can come from an eminent individual with internationally recognised expertise in your specialist field.

The letters should come from a senior member of the organisation who is familiar with your work and able to comment on your achievements. They will need to detail your achievements in your specialist field and how, in their opinion, you have demonstrated that you are, or have the potential to become, a leader in your field.

Does Arts Council England Require a CV?

Your application for an Arts and Culture endorsement will need to include a CV. This is to assist Arts Council England to understand what stage you are at in your arts and culture career to date.

Exceptional Promise applicants must be at an early stage in their career. Applicants at later stages of their careers should apply under the Exceptional Talent criteria.

Arts Council England Endorsement Application Decision Times

Arts Council England usually take between six and eight weeks in total from submission to make a decision on an endorsement application.

Once you have made your application, the Home Office will email you to confirm that the decision has been passed to Arts Council England for consideration. They will indicate at that stage that a decision should be made within 25 working days.

Our Global Talent Visa Endorsement Application Service

(<https://www.google.co.uk>

Our Global Talent Visa Endorsement application service is divided into 4 discrete stages in

Stage 1 – Initial Consultation and Strategic Planning

- Personalised Case Consultation: Expert guidance from a specialist immigration barrister to identify the most appropriate Global Talent Visa route and endorsement category for your specific circumstances and career achievements.
- Application Structuring for Success: Strategic advice on structuring your application for a strong and persuasive case, focused on meeting the specific criteria of the endorsing body.

Stage 2 – Global Talent Endorsement Application Preparation

Regulatory and Policy Guidance

- Expert Analysis of Endorsement Requirements: In-depth advice on the requirements of the Immigration Rules for the Global Talent Visa endorsement, relevant Home Office policies, and applicable case law.
- Endorsement Body Criteria Review: Detailed insights into the specific requirements and priorities of the relevant endorsing body (e.g., Arts Council England, Tech Nation etc.), to ensure your application is aligned with their standards.

Supporting Document Advice and Preparation

- Documentary Evidence Advice: Detailed advice on the documentary evidence required to support your endorsement application, including clear guidance on the necessary content, format, and presentation.
- Supporting Document Review: Comprehensive review of each document to ensure compliance with endorsing body requirements, with personalised feedback on any required or recommended amendments.

Application Form Completion and Barrister's Opinion

- Completion of Endorsement Application Form(s): Precise completion of all relevant endorsement application forms to ensure accuracy and adherence to submission standards.
- Expert Barrister's Opinion: Preparation of a detailed legal opinion by a specialist immigration barrister, clearly outlining how your qualifications and achievements meet the Global Talent Visa criteria and explaining why the endorsing body should approve your application.

Application Bundle Preparation

- Endorsement Application Bundle Compilation: Assembly of a complete, well-organised application bundle that is thoroughly indexed and paginated, ensuring all required information is easily accessible and professionally presented. <https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=richmond+chambers+immigration+barristers>
- Final Compliance Check by Second Barrister: Independent review of your completed application by a second immigration barrister.

Stage 3 – Global Talent Endorsement Application Submission

- Application Submission Support: Assistance with the submission of your application bundle, ensuring it meets all technical requirements of the endorsing body.
- Agent for Correspondence: Acting as your designated representative to handle all communications with the endorsing body, promptly relaying any updates, queries, or additional requests until a decision is received.

Stage 4 – Post-Decision Support and Next Steps Guidance

- Decision Analysis and Advice: Clear, professional advice on the outcome of your endorsement application, including guidance on any additional steps if further action is required.
- Next Steps Consultation: Detailed advice on the next stages following endorsement, including any procedural guidance needed to progress to the visa application stage.

Arts and Culture Global Talent Visa Application Following Endorsement

Once you have received your Arts Council endorsement, you will have a period of three months from the date of the endorsement letter to make your application to enter or remain in the UK in the Arts and Culture Global Talent visa category.

An application to switch into the Arts and Culture Global Talent visa route may be made from within the UK provided you do not currently have, or were not last granted, permission to stay as a Visitor, Short-term Student, Parent of a Child Student, Seasonal Worker, Domestic worker in a private household or outside the Immigration Rules.

If you hold, or were last granted, leave in any of the above categories then you will be required to leave the UK and submit your application for an Arts and Culture Global Talent visa from your home country.

Anyone who does not have leave in the UK, will need to ensure that they are abroad when they make their Arts and Culture Global Talent visa application. However, the application can be made from anywhere in the world, so you do not necessarily have to travel to your home country to make the application.

In addition to showing that you have been endorsed, the Home Office will assess your character and immigration history to ensure that you do not fall for refusal under the general grounds for refusal.

There is no maintenance or English language requirement in the Arts and Culture Global Talent visa category.

immigration barristers
(/g=richmond+chambers+in
Leave will be granted for the period that you request (in full year periods) up to five years.

The amount of time that you request makes no difference to the application but will affect the amount that you need to pay for the Immigration Health Surcharge.

Arts and Culture Global Talent Visa Prestigious Prizes Route

If you have won a qualifying prestigious award, you will be able to fast-track the endorsement application and instead proceed directly to making a single Arts and Culture Global Talent visa application.

The list of prestigious prizes is set out in Appendix Global Talent: Prestigious Prizes (<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/immigration-rules/immigration-rules-appendix-global-talent-prestigious-prizes>). This list is kept under review and updated from time-to-time.
