SPONSOR LICENCE REVOCATIONS

If UK Visas and Immigration considers that you are failing to meet your sponsor duties in a serious way or stop operating in the UK, your sponsor licence will be revoked.

Sponsor Licence Revocation

If your sponsor licence is revoked, any migrants you sponsor will have their leave curtailed. They will be given 60 calendar days to find alternative sponsorship or leave the UK. If they have less than 60 days to run on their visa it will not be curtailed, but they must find alternative sponsorship or leave the UK before it expires.

Reasons for revoking a sponsor licence include having given false information when you made your Sponsor Licence Application (/business-immigration/business-immigration-services/sponsor-licence-applications/), employing a migrant in a job that does not meet the skill level requirements and using a CoS to fill a vacancy other than the one specified on the CoS you assign for that role. Human resource policy failures are a common reason for revocation.

There is no right of appeal against a decision to revoke a sponsor licence and you will not be allowed to apply for a sponsor licence again until the end of the appropriate cooling off period from the date your licence is revoked.

However, the application will need to address the reasons why your previous licence was revoked.
